

St. Pompilio Maria Pirrotti
Feast on July 15

Born in Montecalvo Irpino, Italy, 1710; dead in Campi Salentina, Italy, in 1766. Teacher, preacher, apostle of charity. Pius XI proclaimed him Saint in 1934.

Prayer.

O Lord, our God,
You wanted Saint Pompilio Maria to become Everything at the service of all,
In the education of youth
and in the evangelization of the poor;
give us through his intercession
the grace of continually imitating Christ, the good Teacher and so may we reach heaven surrounded by the children and the poor.
